Mass-timber is making headway across the country
The handful of projects finished or in the works in the U.S. is evidence that great heights will be one of the last things tall wood achieves.

Confidential Large Tech Project - Silicon Valley Project
One of the Largest Mass Timber Project in the US (36 acres - 649,000 sq. ft.)

San Jacinto College Central Campus - Nation’s largest mass timber instructional building
Learning from first innovators’ trial and error
Comfortable with the solutions mass timber offers than the challenges it presents

CONTINUING EDUCATION CREDIT

A credit value is assigned to CMAA courses and seminars in units of Professional Development Hours (PDH), Learning Units (LU), and CCM Recertification Points. CMAA guarantees that course material meets the minimum requirements for a PDH, which is 60 minutes of instruction, or increments thereof.

CMAA is registered with the American Institute of Architects (AIA) as an approved CES provider of LUs. One educational contact hour equals one (1) LU. To receive LUs through CMAA, you must provide your AIA member number on all registration materials and attendance forms. www.aia.com

CMAA has met the standards and requirements of the Registered Continuing Education Program. Credit earned on completion of this program will be reported to RCEP. A certificate of completion will be issued to each participant. As such, it does not include content that may be deemed or construed to be an approval or endorsement by RCEP. www.rcep.net

All courses approved by CMAA count toward CCM recertification points. For more information on recertification points, please click here.
